Saul Newbury Is Honored At C. P. S. Dinner

Ceremonies For First Day Sale Of The Navy Stamps At Annapolis

Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan has announced details for the ceremonies in connection with the first-day sale of the 3-cent Navy commemorative postage stamp at Annapolis, Md., October 27. Mr. Hannegan, who will accompany President Truman to the Naval Review in New York on that day, has designated Third Assistant Postmaster General Joseph J. Lawler as his representative on this occasion.

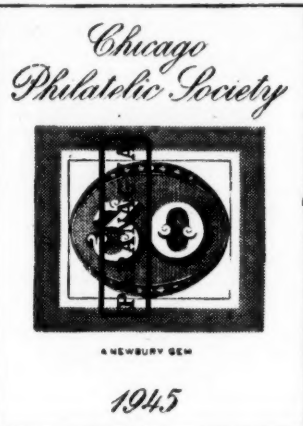

The ceremonies will be held in front of the Superintendent's office, in the Naval Academy grounds at 8:30 A. M. The Naval Academy band will furnish the music for the occasion.

Postmaster William A. Stroh of Annapolis will present Mayor William McGready of Annapolis, who will act as master of ceremonies. Third Assistant Postmaster General Lawler will make an address and present a special album sheet of the new stamp to Vice Admiral Aubrey W. Fitch, Superintendent of the Naval Academy, who will speak briefly. Mr. Lawler will present to Governor Herbert R. O'Connor a special album containing a sheet of the Navy stamp, and he will accept it in behalf of Maryland. Mr. Lawler then will present a special stamp album to Pharmacist's Mate Second Class George E. Wahlen, USNR, RR No. 1, Ogden, Utah. Wahlen is the only living enlisted man in the Navy who has been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Special albums, each containing a sheet of the Navy stamp, will be sent to Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, who will be in Honolulu at the time, and another album will be dispatched to Fleet

Newbury Gem On C.P.S. Seal

The seal for the 59th Anniversary Stamp Show of the Chicago Philatelic Society, November 2, 3, and 4, at the LaSalle Hotel, Chicago, features a "gem" from the Saul Newbury collection, a 30r "Bull's Eye" cancelled in an oblong box, Paranaquia. It is the work of Henry Grimsland, 5024 N. Kildare avenue, Chicago 30, Ill. The seal is in black, save for blue "piece" on which the stamp appears in the Newbury collection. The seals may be purchased—they are on cardboard—at 10 cents each, plus three cents postage from Mr. Grimsland.

Plans For The 59th Anniversary Show Assure Record Crowds Will Attend; Bourse Tables Are Filled

By David Lidman

It will be business as usual for stamp dealers in Chicago, the week-end of November 2, 3 and 4. At least a dozen visiting dealers will be in the city, and they will be joined by approximately two dozen local purveyors of stamps at bourse tables in the grand ballroom of the LaSalle hotel. The occasion will be the 59th Anniversary Stamp Show of the Chicago Philatelic Society, and Anthony C. Russo, president of C. P. S., and general chairman of the show, has announced that more than 30 tables have been sold—an indication that the dealers know that C. P. S. shows are worth the traveling expense—its good business. Not alone will the bourse be an attraction at this show, even if it will gather a lot of attention from the expected thousands of visitors. The show, displaying material from some of the country's outstanding collections, is expected to equal if not surpass previous C. P. S. exhibitions.

There will be upwards of 300 frames on display in the well-lighted LaSalle grand ballroom, and it will be competitive all the way except for some outstanding non-competitive exhibitors.

Among trophies to be awarded will be the Saul Newbury Trophy, for the best of 19th Century U. S., and the Dr. Clarence W. Hennen Trophy, for "best in show", and 39 medals—gold, silver and bronze—for the top exhibits in each of the 13 classes to be competed in.

These medals are a replica of the 1944 gold medals presented to the "invitation only" exhibitors at that show; medals that won

Postal Stationery Societies Merged

The United Postal Stationery Society, recently formed by the merger of the old Postal Card Society of America and the International Postal Stationery announces that collectors of all forms of postal stationery are eligible for membership, as the Society promotes the interest of all kinds—stamped envelopes (both entire and cut square), postal cards, wrappers, letter cards, etc., from any and all stamp issuing countries of the world.

Interest in postal stationery has increased sharply and the true collector has found that specialization in a country is not complete unless he includes in his collection the stamped envelopes, postal cards, and other government stationery of the country. They add color, variety and beauty to the collection, and many of the items, particularly in used condition, are far more scarce than the stamps of the country.

Interested collectors may obtain an application blank and full information by writing to the Secretary-Treasurer, J. Garland Marks, 540 N. Monroe St., Butler, Pa.

Billig & Rich Offer Part Of Big 1700 Lot Auction To Our Readers

More than 1700 fine lots of stamps from all over the world are contained in the catalogue of the three day sale to be held by Billig & Rich in New York, November 15, 16, 17.

A sort of preview of the catalogue and the sale is offered readers of Linn's Weekly Stamp News on the back page of this issue where selections of lots from this sale are listed just as they are listed in the catalogue.

Readers can bid direct from this sale list and interested collectors who act at once will have time to ask for a complete catalogue and see the other splendid offerings.

Billig & Rich are a new firm in the auction field and the business is under the able management of Mr. Fritz Billig one of the world's leading authorities on stamps and author of many fine books on stamps and stamp collecting.

DISCHARGE EMBLEM STAMP URGED BY DISABLED VETS.

From John J. Noble of St. Louis and from other sources we have newspaper clippings picturing a proposed new stamp which has been suggested by the Disabled American Veterans. The stamp bears a picture of the Honorable Emblem at the right side and at the left in three lines, "Honorable/Discharge/Emblem". Across the top in a single line, "They Have Served".

WESTOVER VISITS SIDNEY

Fred G. Westover, popular Flint, Michigan collector and sometime dealer dropped into the office of the Weekly last week while on his way to the Mound City Stamp Club meet in St. Louis on Oct. 20th.

Fred joined up with the Navy to "See The World" and has been stationed in Flint ever since, at a recruiting office.

CORONATION ERRORS
Issued in 1896 to commemorate the coronation of the new Sultan. Stamps of 1892-4 were overprinted Kemahkotaan. The errors read Ketahkotaan. I recently purchased some of these mint errors, which however had paper adhering to backs. This was carefully removed and although small traces of the white paper remain, the stamps are with original gum, well centered and very fine. These are scarce items, missing in most collections and usually sell for full catalogue or over when available. This lucky purchase enables me to offer 30A to 35A (catalogue $5.00) for only $2.35. POSTAGE STAMP PARADE

BELGIAN CONGO—Semi-Postals. "For the Benefit of the Red Cross" has been overprinted in Flemish and French on eight stamps of the 1942 pictorial set, and surtaxes of 50fr or 100fr have been added. Denominations are: 50c plus 50fr oil palms, 1.25 plus 100fr native woman, 1.75 plus 100fr leopard and 3.50 plus 100fr native soldier. These surcharges were applied to both the stamps with "Congo Belge" at the top, and those with "Belgisch Congo" leading the inscription. The Belgian Information Center in New York sold these stamps, together with a similar set for Ruanda-Urundi, at face value. The B. I. C. says 24,000 sets were surcharged.

—Mrs. Theresa M. Clark
CUBA—Commemoratives. Two stamps have been released to mark the 150th anniversary of the Economic Society of Havana. The 1c, green, bears the emblem of the Sociedad Economica de Amigos del Pais de la Habana, and notes that this is the 150th anniversary of its founding, while the 2c., orange-red, features Governor Luis de las Casas and Father Luis Maria Penalver, founders. The observance is belated since the actual founding took place in 1793.

—Gimbels Stamp Dept.
CZECHOSLOVAKIA—A new souvenir sheet for the city of Koscice, in the eastern part of the country, has been noted. There are three stamps on the sheet, specifically the 2k., red; 5k., gray; and 6k., blue, with the coat-of-arms and inscriptions.
DENMARK—Commemoratives. The seventy-fifth birthday of King Christian X on September 26 was noted with 10-ore violet, 20-ore red and 40-ore blue bearing his portrait under crown and wreath and the dates 1870 and 1945.

—O. Nagel
FRANCE—Commemoratives. A new 2Fr. blue stamp is a variation of the France Overseas type, with a new year "1945," and the Cross of Lorraine is added in the left.

MARTINIQUE—Surcharges. Two new values are a 1fr., on 2c (red) and 10 francs on 65c (black). There will be 2 additional values.

NORWAY—Semi-Postal. A 20 ore plus 10 ore, red, has been issued to honor the work of the Red Cross for the last 80 years. The stamp shows a young nurse.

NORWAY—Commemoratives. The new Henrik Wergeland commemorative issue has been received. Values and colors are: 10 ore, dark green, 15ore, black-brown, and 20 ore, brick red. Gimbels also notes a 1½k. of a new coat-of-arms type.

RUSSIA—Commemorative. A victory overprint was applied to the 3R brown medal type stamp. Overprint in 4 lines reads "Victory Day, May 9, 1945."

—N. Y. Sun
RUSSIA—Commemoratives. Three upright stamps honoring the discoveries of Professor A. S.

Popov in the radio field have been received. The 30k., deep ultramarine, and 60k. deep red show the Professor lecturing. The 1R., brown, bears a portrait.
—Gimbels Stamp Dept.

VATICAN CITY—Commemoratives similar to the 1942 Christ issue (Scott's Nos. 77-9). A set of 3 values, 1L green, 2L red and 5 L blue have been issued. The year 1944 in Roman numerals appears at bottom of stamp.

Final German Stamps Believed To Be Rarest Of All German Issues

We are reporting 2 new German stamps and enclose one of each. The pictures shown on them commemorate the SS and SA Formations. The man holding the torch is a SA man (Brownshirt), the other one with the steel helmet is a SS man (Blackshirt—originally Hitler's bodyguard) showing the SS insignia on his collar.

It is surprising that these two Semi-Postal stamps have shown up so late, nearly 1/2 year after the war with Germany has ended. According to the report received the reason is that these stamps have been printed in Vienna and were shipped to Berlin just a few days before the German capital fell to the Russians. They were on sale only for a day or even a few hours and subsequently the post office has been destroyed by fire. Only what had been sold up to then has been saved from destruction and these stamps promise to be probably the rarest of the stamps of "Grossdeutschland" (Greater Germany).

Five Leading New York Auctioneers To Conduct Victory Auction Sale

The catalog of the Philatelic Victory Auction Sale, the proceeds of which are to be given to the National War Fund shows a splendid lot of choice stamps which have been donated by collectors for this event.
Two full pages of especially attractive items are pictured and the list of over 400 choice lots assures a splendid sale.
A list of donors is printed in the front of the catalog and it is not yet too late to make a cash donation if you have not contributed to this philatelic fund for our War Benefits. Cash contributions can be addressed to Robert L. Graham, c/o Collectors Club, 22 E. 35th Street, New York 16, N. Y.

Collectors in New York and vicinity are invited to attend the sale which will be held in the rooms of the Collectors Club at 8 p. m. on Tuesday evening, October 30th.
The sale is under the management of five of the leading stamp auctioneers of New York. These gentlemen will vie with one another in getting your money at top prices for the various lots. Mr. Walter S. Scott is Chairman of the Auctioneers group and is assisted by Donald D'Amato, Gregory Mozier, John L. Stroub and Paul Wise.
If you can not attend, see that your bids go by mail at once.

WHERE'S GRAND CAYMAN?

Just a fly speck on the map but a very important part of every collector's album and a must for specialists in British Colonies. Beautiful, picturesque designs in bright, vivid colors distinguish these mint George VI issues. And they are only 11c for a short set of 4 or 75c for a set of 9 to the shilling.
And I have all other current issues of mint British Colonies at equally low prices—only 10c for a short set of 3 or 75c for sets to the shilling with higher denominations at 30c per shilling.
Ask for a selection of mint George VI British Colonies on approval. Be sure to state whether short sets, sets to the shilling or complete sets are desired and include references, please.

A 48 HOUR LEAVE

Yes, your editor is going to have another vacation, this time a 48 hour leave during which time he will hop to Chicago and return to attend the big C. P. S. show and dinner, his daughter, Hazel, will accompany him and we will endeavor to pack a lot of excitement into this brief period of time. This is to be strictly a pleasure trip or rather a trip in which we feel that a brief rest and getting away from the daily grind will make us feel like coming home again and starting to work refreshed. Unlike the stamp dealers who go to these shows for business, we go for rest and pleasure and although we are surrounded by everything in stamps, we prefer to call this a vacation and a rest period for we get little enough of either in bringing out this paper every week. Its a continual grind with deadlines to make every day and when a couple days are snatched out like we expect to take on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of next week-end, we have to pitch in and plan ahead, doing some things in advance and then when we get back we are up to our neck in work to catch up again.

This paper has shown a tremendous growth in the past three years, during which time it has had the publishers personal attention. Time is getting close where we are going to be obliged to take on more help and this will be done with a view to getting a man who is capable and who will eventually take an interest in the paper for the time will come when the present editor must retire in favor of a younger man.

We are hoping that we can find the right man soon, for with capable assistance, this publication can be enlarged and improved in many ways. We have no intention whatever of thinking of any different form of paper, we get more satisfaction out of it in present form than ever before and believe our readers will agree with us on that point.

We hope to meet many friends from all parts of the country in Chicago and with travel restrictions removed, this show should be one of the biggest of recent years.

Later in November we expect to spend Saturday afternoon and evening and all day Sunday at the show and bourse to be held by the Dayton Philatelic Society, November 17, 18, and on November 27 and 28 we expect to be at the Cleveland Philatelic Congress.

many exclamations of praise for their general appearance and workmanship.

In addition to the Newbury Trophy, a medal named in honor of Mr. Newbury will be presented to the collector who has contributed most to Chicago philately in the last year.

This honor, and the fact that the annual dinner on Saturday night, November 3, will be "Saul Newbury Night," are tokens of Chicago stamp collectors' appreciation of the many contributions that Mr. Newbury himself has made to Chicago stamp collecting.

With travel restrictions lifted, it is expected that the 59th Anniversary Show will be excellently attended.

An almost complete list of Exhibitors is given herewith and the array of material offered assures a splendid exhibition.

The exhibition itself will be topped by eight non-competitive exhibits by outstanding collectors showing some of their most outstanding material.

Saul Newbury will display eight frames from his famed collection

"alma mater" for the first time in several years.

Harry L. Lindquist of New York, editor of "Stamps", is to show pages from a highly specialized collection of Guatemala, including many items considered extremely rare. Mr. Lindquist is another top-flight philatelist who received his start in Chicago, and he has shown several times in recent years.

Mortimer Heinken of Brooklyn, who received the grand award at the Stampex show in Newark this summer, will show at C. P. S. in the non-competitive field, also. His exhibit will include a specialized collection of the U. S. 1 cent of 1851-1857, and includes the only known full pane of plate 2.

These eight exhibits will head off the show, to be followed by as fine an assortment of material ever gathered for a club exhibition.

Among these competitive exhibitors are the following:

also the Golden Gate Precancel Club which is quite active. Both of these Clubs and almost all other Precancel Clubs are branches of the Precancel Stamp Society. The Southern California club is No. 15 and the Golden Gate club is No. 6. So the whole thing is that there is only one large national club with about 24 branch clubs. In the Mid-west its The St. Louis Precancel Club, and Missouri Precancel Club, two different clubs. There is one near you and one of the best ways to get an inside start on precancels is to join one of these branch clubs especially if you are a beginner and think you will be able to attend their meetings. Almost all clubs have meetings once a month and some oftener. Drop me a card and I will put you in touch with the secretary of the Club nearest you.

Precancel Clubs.
In the June issue of The Philatelic Press the house organ for Lawrence Bros. of Anamosa Iowa, was an article deploring the fact that there were several large precancel clubs, but that there seemed to be no cohesion between them. The lack of one large club was deplored. Whether the boys know the true facts or not I cannot say but here they are. There is only one large National Precancel organization and it is the The Precancel Stamp Society, oft times referred to as the P. S. S. The other large club mentioned by Lawrence Bros. was a west coast club and quite possibly was the Southern California Precancel Club. There is
